

Journey of Man Discussion questions

(Answer on your own paper – pay close attention to the film)

1. What is the thesis (main idea) of this film? In other words... what is the film trying to prove/argue?
2. Why is DNA important evidence for this film?
3. How do the San bushmen communicate
4. Why is the man in Kazakhstan so important to the thesis of this film?
5. Do you agree with the evidence put forth in this film? Why or why not?
6. According to the film, why do some people have darker skin, longer arms, lighter hair, etc?
7. How might the information in this film change the way people treat each other?
8. Why might the narrator not be able to do this research 200 years from now?
9. What was most surprising to you about this film?

Journey of Man Discussion questions

(Answer on your own paper – pay close attention to the film)

1. What is the thesis (main idea) of this film? In other words... what is the film trying to prove/argue?
2. Why is DNA important evidence for this film?
3. How do the San bushmen communicate
4. Why is the man in Kazakhstan so important to the thesis of this film?
5. Do you agree with the evidence put forth in this film? Why or why not?
6. According to the film, why do some people have darker skin, longer arms, lighter hair, etc?
7. How might the information in this film change the way people treat each other?
8. Why might the narrator not be able to do this research 200 years from now?
9. What was most surprising to you about this film?