

Quotations - Words

“Words – so innocent and powerless as they are, as standing in a dictionary, how potent for good and evil they become, in the hands of one who knows how to combine them!”

Nathaniel Hawthorne – American writer

Copy the quote and the attribution. Then write a paragraph to explain what you think the quote means (using examples is always a plus)

“All our words from loose using have lost their edge.”

Ernest Hemingway – American writer