

ALR CH. 21 Similes

p. 197:

“...loving her now would be as natural as a full moon or rain in the spring.”

What two things are being compared? What does Tawanda represent to Zech therefore?

p.198

“... her hands burning his chest like a branding iron”

What two things are being compared? Why is the choice of the branding iron significant?