This Week's News

Reading News: This week we are going back to comparing stories. We will be comparing both in fiction and nonfiction. We will be comparing stories by the same author, with the same character, or on the same topic.

Math News: In math, we are going back to multiplication and division. This time we are reviewing strategies, but we will be more focused on how multiplication and division are related. Think of fact families; if  $6 \times 4 = 24$ , then  $24 \div 4 = 6$ . We will also work on finding unknowns in a problem;  $36 \div y = 6$  then  $y = 6$ . This week we are also working on multiplying by 10s; for example,  $30 \times 4 = 120$ . The class seems to be working well on this, so I hope to test on Friday. I will let you know if it needs to be postponed for any reason.

Science and Social Studies News: In science we will be working on our matter unit. This will be understanding the different states of matter and how matter can change states. In social studies we will start our unit on economics. This will review needs, wants, consumer, producer. We will also go into scarcity and how units of money differ in the countries within North America.
