

Weekly Newsletter: March 25-29, 2019

I hope everyone had a relaxing and fun spring break! We are officially in the 4th quarter and with so many fun and exciting things coming up, the end of this school year is going to fly by 😊

This Week We Are Learning

ELA: Compare and Contrast Themes of Similar Topics

This week students will review comparing and contrasting themes of similar topics through traditional literatures. We will also be starting our Tropicana Speech Contest this week and FSA writing is just around the corner!

Math: Parallel and Perpendicular Lines and Combining Angles

Our next math unit will run until April 12th, and will cover parallel and perpendicular lines, combining angles and classifying two-dimensional shapes. IXL for additional practice: all of X, all of Y, W5 and Z5

Science: Weathering and Erosion

Our next science topic will be weathering and erosion. This week students will begin the unit with a mystery science investigation. A list of requested supplies will be sent through class dojo 😊
