I Love Wrinkles

I like raisins, I like prunes,
 I like wash-boards played with spoons.
 I like roads that dip and dive,
 Better than the straight and narrow drive.
 I like whisk-ers and a curly white beard.
 I like eyes that can shed a tear.
 So give me a face with some char-ac-ter,
 I like wrin-kles for sure.

Solo 1
 I like a face with eyes that twin-kle,
 I like crow's feet and brows that wrin-kle,
 I like smiles that are big and wide,
 Show-ing lots of love in-side.

Solo 2
 I like spots on leath-er-y-skin,
 'Cause it show the ex-pe-ri-ence that lies with-in.
 So good-bye to Bo-tox and Oil of O-lay,
 You can just go a way.

Dance Break (17 measures)

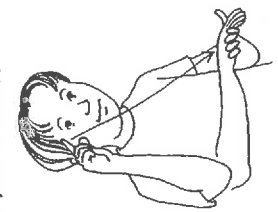

Solo 3
 I like baldies and hair that's white.
 "For-ev-er young just don't seem right."
 Wrin-kled and com-fy are my kind of clothes,
 Starched and pressed are not what goes.
 So look at the beau-ty that lies with-in.
 Not on the sur-face, not on the skin.
 So give me a per-son with char-ac-ter,
 I like wrin-kles for sure.
 I like wrin-kles for sure.
 Oh yeah!
