Class News: Read All About It!

Welcome back! I hope you all enjoyed your holiday break!

The first semester has come to an end! One of my goals this next semester will be to prepare your child for Third Grade. We'll be working very hard on student responsibility & independence. It is always beneficial to the student when we work together as a team. Please continue to reinforce these behaviors at home. Thank you for your unconditional support!

The students took the STAR Reading test (Round 3) before break. From the results of this test your child's reading level (ZPD) is given. Any changes will be made on their bookmark. Books should be coming home weekly from either the library or the classroom on this level. Encourage your child to read AR books & test daily. STAR results along with the growth report for the Winter iReady Math test have been sent home. Please let me know if you have any questions. iReady Reading reports will be sent home soon.

Ready reading passages will continue to get harder as the year progresses. Some lessons will take only one week, while others will take two. Also, the entire first semester the passages were read to the students first. The students will now be expected to read the passage independently and then answer the questions without guidance. Please continue to remind your child to take their time, go back into the passage to find text evidence, and write using complete sentences.

WHAT'S COMING UP...

Reading: -Describing Connections Between Historical Events

(Reading Test: Thursday-Students will read and complete independently.)

Word Work: Spelling Test on Suffix -er, -ist, and -or Words & Guided Spelling - Words with the Suffix -ly
