Class News: Read All About It!

I hope you all had a very Happy Valentine's Day last week, and a great Presidents' Day too. We enjoyed fun activities, eating treats, and opening our valentines. Thank you for all of the sweet gifts and for thinking of me. What a thoughtful class I have!

The March calendar will be sent home soon. Please refer to this calendar for class events, test dates, etc. It will also be posted on my website, which should be checked weekly.

READ ACROSS AMERICA!

March is Read Across America month. We will be spending the month celebrating reading and completing some fun Dr. Seuss activities. During the month of March please encourage your child to read Dr. Seuss books in and out of class and take the AR tests. Please work with us this month to inspire your child with a love for reading.

MYSTERY READERS NEEDED!!

Please let me know ASAP if you have not had the opportunity to be Mystery Reader this year and would like to. There are still plenty of available dates. Please check my class website for the available dates and email me with your preferred date. My kiddos really love this time!
