Welcome to the start of a new school year! As a student enrolled in a theatre class, you are now a member of FIXTOPIA – the Home of All Things Theatre!

As we begin the school year, I would like to give you some information about what to expect from my class and about what I expect from each of you as a member of FIXTOPIA. I want you all to know that I am here to support you and help you succeed. Remember to check Schoology for due dates, copies of handouts and notes, and other important class information; copies of class notes can also be found on my school website. Please feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns by Schoology message or email.

Here's to a great year!!!! Go Knights!!!!

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS:

- ❖ This course will incorporate language arts elements through reading and writing and social studies elements through the study of theatre history. Students will complete reflective journal entries and take notes regularly; these recordings will serve as study aids and project notes. Students will be expected to participate in group work and complete projects regularly. Please check the class website for information about these projects throughout the school year.
- ❖ As part of theatre, our class may watch film versions of plays and other film clips to enhance the study of theatre. A separate permission slip will be sent home for each film.

BEHAVIOR AND CLASSROOM EXPECTATIONS:

- ❖ FIXEL'S #1 RULE: Keep it Positive! ☺
 - The land of Fixtopia is a safe place where everyone should feel supported!
 - Practice Kindness; Be Courteous, Respectful, and Uplifting to One another!
 - Vibe Check: Is it Friendly? Is it Inspiring? Does it set a good example?
- ❖ Students are expected to demonstrate the following behaviors at all times and to abide by the Knights Code of Honor:
 - Respect others and yourself at all times.
 - Show good character every day.
 - Set goals, stay focused.
 - Think and act like a leader.
 - Strive for excellence.
- ❖ Students are expected to adhere to the following school and classroom rules each day:
 - Put earbuds and phones away in backpacks before you enter the class each day.
 - When the bell rings, all students should be seated in their assigned chairs (not milling about or on the floor).
 - Come to class each day prepared with the correct materials and ready to engage in class discussions and activities. If there is a warmup assignment, begin working on it immediately after you enter the room.

- Participate and contribute to the class at all times, in a mature, respectful, and responsible manner.
 - No food or drinks (except bottled water) are permitted inside the classroom; this includes gum.
 - Portable electronic devices, including phones, IPODs, MP3, other music, or gaming systems, shall not be taken out or made visible at any time inside the classroom. #notextinginclass #no snapping
 - *For specific projects, students may be able to use personal electronics for research or sound needs. Students must ask for permission before using these items. Students may only use the item with permission during the specific class period; the student will not be allowed to use the device in other classes. In addition, the student must have a personal use form on file with the school in order to use the personal electronic device in class.
- ❖ Tardies – Students who are not seated when the bell rings, will be considered tardy, and marked as such. Please note: After three (3) unexcused tardies (per quarter) the student will be referred to the Dean for disciplinary measures. 1st Tardy = Warning; 2nd Tardy = Notify Guardian; 3rd Tardy = Referral to the Dean.
- ❖ Homework – Homework is a necessary part of the learning process. Most of our assignments will be long-term projects; students will be aware of due dates for these projects several weeks in advance. Students are responsible for asking for help when experiencing difficulties prior to the due date. Many of our projects and assignments for this course will be completed in class.
- ❖ Submitting Assignments – Our class will be as paperless as possible. Assignments will be submitted on Schoology. This includes assignments completed in class; if you complete an assignment in class, you will scan it or take a photo and submit as an attachment to class assignment on Schoology.
- ❖ PARTICIPATION – This class is fun! Be ready to actively participate in class projects and activities. If you are a little shy, no worries...your classmates and I are all here to support you!
- ❖ GET INVOLVED - There are many opportunities to get involved with theatre outside of class through school productions and through the International Thespian Society. However, participation in these activities goes hand in hand with academic attentiveness and a commitment to being a responsible student. In order to participate in after school rehearsals and/or performances, you must be present at school on the day for which there is practice or performance.
- ❖ Make-Up Work – If a student is absent, it is his or her responsibility to check Schoology for missed assignments and notes. Students will have two days to make-up a missed assignment due to an excused absence. Tests and Quizzes which are missed during absences can be taken before school by appointment. Extended absences will be handled individually. Unexcused absences will result in 50% credit on assignments.
- ❖ Retake Policy - Any student earning less than an 85% on a summative assignment will have the opportunity to redo the assignment for up to an 85%.
- ❖ ESE and ELL accommodations will be addressed within the classroom.
- ❖ Academic Integrity – It is non-negotiable that students will exhibit academic integrity at all times and in all classes at Creekside High School. All work submitted should be your own, with credit given to any expert used. Cheating, plagiarism, falsification - or attempts to cheat, plagiarize or falsify - will not be tolerated. Aiding others in their desire or attempts to cheat is also not permitted. Academic dishonesty will result in a zero on the assignment, a referral to the dean, and guardian notification. NO EXCEPTIONS.

MATERIALS TO BRING EACH DAY: (Use your Theatre Notebook from previous years if you have it)

- ❖ 2 Pocket Folder dedicated to Theatre and Composition/Journal Book to use for Writing OR Binder with dividers
 - If you can take theatre performance and tech theatre, you can use the same materials for both classes.
 - You can and should use the same materials from year to year (Use your theatre 1 notebook in theatre 2, 3, 4 and tech)
- ❖ Notebook Paper – (8 ½ x 11)
- ❖ Pens, Pencils
- ❖ Colored Pencils
- ❖ Planner
- ❖ Index cards and highlighters may also come in handy but are not required

 - Theatre IV students will serve as student learning leaders for the Access Theatre Course.

Students enrolled in Theatre IV are expected to fully participate in all class activities and assignments.

Additionally, it is expected that the majority of students will choose to get involved with theatre outside of the classroom. *See the theatre enrichment and workshop requirements below.

❖ Theatre Enrichment: All students enrolled in Theatre IV will be required to see two plays outside of class per semester. Students should see one CHS (or participate in) play per semester and one play outside of Creekside (includes: another high school's production, a college production, a community theatre production, or professional show).

TECHNICAL THEATRE

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Technical Theatre:

Students focus on developing the basic tools and procedures for creating elements of technical theatre, including costumes, lighting, makeup, properties (props), publicity, scenery, and sound. Technical knowledge of safety procedures and demonstrated safe operation of theatre equipment, tools, and raw materials are central to success in this course. Students explore and learn to analyze dramatic scripts, seeking production solutions through historical, cultural, and geographic research. Students also learn the basics of standard conventions of design presentation and documentation; the organizational structure of theatre production and creative work in a collaborative environment; and the resulting artistic improvement. Public performances may serve as a culmination of specific instructional goals. Students may be required to attend or participate in technical work, rehearsals, and/or performances beyond the school day to support, extend, and assess learning in the classroom.

UNITS OF STUDY – TECH THEATRE:

- Parts of the theatre
- Who's Who?: Technical Theatre Roles
- Producing A Show/Publicity
- Theatre Safety
- Rehearsal/Production
- Directing: Casting A Show Staging and Blocking/Movement/Staging
- Costume Design and Construction
- Set Design and Construction
- Lighting and Sound Design and Implementation
- Characters Brought to Life – Makeup, Hair, and Costume
- Stage Management
- This course will be hands on. All students are expected to fully participate in all projects and undertakings. (*This may require dressing for the class – not being dressed for the preannounced activity should not hinder participation. *Students may keep “paint clothes” in the appropriate dressing room.) Students will be required to submit weekly logs.
- Play Enrichment: All students enrolled in Tech Theatre will be required to see one CHS (or participate) play per semester OR one play outside of Creekside (includes: another High school's production, a college production, a community theatre production, or professional show).
- Workshop Hours/ Hands on Tech Hours: All students enrolled in Tech Theatre II – IV will be required to complete at least 2 workshop/hands on hours in the spring semester. These hours can be completed by serving in a technical role for a school event or show or by helping during pre-production. (More information will be available about how this assignment will work thus year towards the end of the first semester).
