Cast & Crew Bios

Autumn Ashwell (Ensemble) has had so much fun being a part of the SpongeBob cast. She is a freshman at Creekside High School and attended Districts for ITS this year and had so much fun with her friends. She was in Patriot Oaks Academy's first musical, Annie Jr., and played Annette. She has been in chorus for two years and took theatre for one year. She is very passionate about creative makeup and hopes to continue to be in Creekside's musicals. She thanks her friends for supporting her the whole way and thanks her family for being there to help her and support her throughout her journey.

Kate Balbir (Ensemble) is thrilled to be participating in The SpongeBob Musical at Creekside high school!! As a freshman, you may know her from her role in the winter one acts as Clara in The Nutcracker. She also participated in districts and her middle school musical, Annie Jr. She thanks her family and friends for coming to support, Ms. Fixel, and the upper classmen!! She hopes you enjoy the show!!

Bianca Baratta (Ensemble), a sophomore this year, has enjoyed this production and loves her roles. She is very appreciative to all her friends and family supporting her and her theatre teacher Ms. Fixel, who is the best! This is her second year performing with Creekside Theatre, and she can't wait for many more productions.

Destiny Beaudrie (Sound) would like to thank her friends, family, and the Creekside Theatre community for an amazing first production year! She has had an amazing time meeting new people and being able to create such magic with them. She cannot wait to continue her theater journey throughout high school. A special thank you to Jax for always picking her up and dropping her off with a smile

Ashlyn Bennet (Gary): After three years running lights, Ashlyn is excited to make her stage debut as her favorite character, Gary. As a senior, this show is a special way to be kids with everyone one last time. Ashlyn would like to thank her family, friends, and work family for their support and encouragement. Meow!

Amanda Berrios (Sardine Devotee/Swing) is on stage to spread the good word that "life smells weird" on the set of The Spongebob Musical. You may have seen Amanda in other Creekside theater productions such as a fairy in A Midsummer Night's Dream or as a member of the ensemble in Cinderella. The end is coming for Amanda's time in Creekside's productions as a senior in her last show. She is very grateful for the opportunity to sing her song and dance her dance one last time.

Ava Davis (Electric Skate) is thrilled to be part of The SpongeBob Musical as Electric Skate #2! As a junior, this is her third year participating in theatre. Previously, she appeared in Harry Potter and the Cursed Child (Book) and Cinderella (Ensemble). Most recently, she performed as a fairy in A Midsummer Night's Dream. She is excited to continue growing as a performer and would like to thank her directors, castmates, friends, and family for their support. "And look the sun is still shining!"

Sofia De Long (SpongeBob) is a senior who is honored to be playing SpongeBob this year. Some of her past roles on the Creekside stage include Lady-in-Waiting in Once Upon a Mattress, Ancestor Chorus in The Addams Family, Polly Chapman in Harry Potter and the Cursed Child, The Stepmother in Cinderella, and Titania in A Midsummer Night's Dream. Each role has helped her grow both on and off the stage. As this final season feels bittersweet, Sofia is incredibly thankful for the opportunities God has given her and for the journey that has shaped her along the way. She is deeply grateful for her family, friends, pastors, dance teachers, and the amazing kids in her life whose love and encouragement have meant everything to her.

Gianna Delaney (Ensemble) is very grateful for this opportunity to share the stage with her fellow cast members. As a freshman, she is excited to continue her theatre course. Her previous roles include Lily St. Regis in Annie Jr., and Mouse 4 and Candy Cane 2 in The Nutcracker (the scripted play version). She would love to thank her family, Ms. Fixel, her wonderful castmates, the amazing tech/stage crew, and everyone else involved for making the production such a lovely experience and encouraging her to keep aiming high.

Cast & Crew Bios

AJ Dixon (Sardine Devotee) has enjoyed working on this production so much. You may recognize her from her previous roles on the Creekside stage, ranging from an ancestor in The Addams Family musical to a fairy in A Midsummer Night's Dream. She would like to thank her friends, her family, and her wonderful teacher, Ms. Fixel, for all the support! "Wishing everyone to have an amazing time watching this musical that everyone put so much hard work into!"

Andrew Eger (Eugene Krabs) has had an amazing time putting together this show with his cast and crew! You might recall him as Theseus in A Midsummer Night's Dream or as the Nutcracker in The Nutcracker. He has enjoyed managing the Krusty Krab and getting on Plankton's nerves. He would like to thank his friends and family for always supporting him, and he hopes everyone in the audience enjoys the show!

Alexis Feldman (Squidward) is excited to bring the well-known, four-legged sensation, Squidward, to the Creekside stage! She began theatre in elementary school and carried it with her through all four years of high school. She'd like to thank her mom, dad, sister and brother for always being there to cheer her on, her friends who have been such a big support system for her, and the entire cast and crew of this production because without all of you, there wouldn't be a Bikini Bottom to save. As Alexis prepares to give her final bows, she especially is thankful to April Nicks, her third-grade teacher who made her into who she is today and who got her into theatre in the first place. Alexis wants the audience to know that despite her grumpy exterior, she has learned so much from this show: you aren't a loser, you don't stink, and you are definitely not, not, not, not, NOT alone.

Emmy Gilyana (Electric Skate) has loved every part of her experience in SpongeBob and has so much to say. You might have previously seen her as Robin Goodfellow (Puck) in A Midsummer Night's Dream. With the role of an electric skate, Emmy had to take on learning how to skateboard. It was certainly a bumpy ride, but she is grateful for her fellow band members who were always there to encourage her. Along with that she would like to thank Lex and Lily for their skateboarding advice. One thing Emmy loves about Creekside Theatre is the way everyone is involved in every aspect of the show. She would like to thank Ms. Fixel for this; one moment you're on stage, the next you're decorating stage boxes. She especially loves the theatre community and will miss the senior class so much. They have always been there for her as role models and best friends. With that, she believes there's so much yet to come; she can't wait to see what the future holds for her!

Savannah Haddock (Sardine Devotee) is ecstatic to be performing in The SpongeBob Musical! This is her third musical with Creekside Theatre, as she was in The Addams Family and Cinderella. This is her favorite musical she's done so far, from the set to the costumes, to the jokes to the message this musical conveys: We must all come together in times of need. She is so excited to be dancing many different styles throughout the musical, her favorites being hip-hop and tap. She hopes you enjoy the show as much as she had fun being a part of it!

Anna Halter (Ensemble) has had so much fun working on this production! You may have recently seen her as Snout in A Midsummer Night's Dream, and she is thrilled to be on the Creekside stage once again. She is eternally grateful for the opportunity to be a part of such an exhilarating show, and sends love to her family, friends, and everyone who's worked hard to put on this fantastic production!

Jules Hartley (French Narrator) is super excited for her second musical with Creekside Theatre! You may recognize her from her previous roles as Godmother Dross in The Nutcracker or an enthusiastic mouse in Cinderella or her most recent role, Francis Flute/ Thisbe in A Midsummer's Night's Dream. She is extremely proud to add another role to her list, along with adding a few skills she's learned from being in this production! She wants to thank her family for allowing her this opportunity and her castmates that make her feel welcomed and supported and a thank you to Ms. Fixel for letting her be a part of such a wonderful production! Jules can't wait to tour you around Bikini Bottom, but till then, au revoir!

Cast & Crew Bios

Ashlyn Hays (Perch Perkins) has had such an amazing time working on this wonderful production! You may recognize Ashlyn from her previous roles at Creekside. She most recently played Helena in A Midsummer Night's Dream this past fall, and Dolores Umbridge in Harry Potter and the Cursed Child last year. Ashlyn would like to thank her outstanding stage managers and director for all the love and care they put into this show. She is eternally grateful for her dear friends in the cast and wants to share how endlessly proud she is of each and every one of them. She sends everyone so much love for being a part of her journey with Creekside Theatre!

Sam Heyner (Sandy) Howdy y'all! Sam is so excited to be participating in her senior year musical, The SpongeBob Musical, as Sandy Cheeks. Previous credits include Oberon in A Midsummer Night's Dream, Fairy Godmother in Cinderella, and Craig Bowker Jr. in Harry Potter and the Cursed Child. Sam would like to thank Ms. Fixel, the cast and crew, her parents, and especially her sisters.

Izzy Homeyard (Electric Skate) is on stage for a musical for her first time ever! Normally taking on a tech role, Izzy is stepping on to the stage in a whole new way! She couldn't be more excited for this opportunity and the chance to be on stage with her friends and have one last show with this year's seniors! She is endlessly grateful for this opportunity and doesn't know what she would do without the endless support of Creekside Theatre, Ms. Fixel, and her family and friends!

Corey Howard (Stage Manager) is very excited to be a part of the SpongeBob team as the Stage Manager. She has loved the opportunity to help create such a beautiful show. This is her final goodbye to the Creekside stage. Huge thank you to everyone who supported her during her past four years on the stage. Thank you Troupe 7346 for giving her such an amazing family.

Journee Hughes (Follow Spot) is excited to be a part of the tech crew for Creekside! As a freshman, Journee has not had a much experience with how Creekside operates compared to middle school. She is so thankful for getting this opportunity and plans to stick with tech crew for the rest of her Creekside years. She really appreciates her family for supporting her and handling her crazy schedule!

Morgan Jackson (Karen) has been a regular on the Creekside stage for the last three years. Some of her previous roles include a Lady in Waiting in Once Upon a Mattress, a member of the Ancestor Chorus in The Addams Family, and the matinee Queen in Cinderella. She can't believe the end...is...coming...with Creekside Theatre, but she's looking forward to ITS States and making the most of every moment she has left. She would like to thank her friends and family, God, and the amazing cast and crew of this musical for such an unforgettable experience. She hopes the audience remembers that if Karen can survive Plankton's plans, you can survive anything, just reboot yourself.

Rhianna Kass (Mayor) is so excited to dive into the role of the mayor. She has been a performer for Creekside Theatre for the past four years; you may have seen her in Once Upon a Mattress (Ensemble), Little Women (Jo March), The Addams Family (Ensemble), Harry Potter and the Cursed Child (Lily Potter), Cinderella (Ensemble), and A Midsummer Night's Dream (Hippolyta). Rhianna had never seen an episode of SpongeBob in her life, so through this show she has learned a lot. This is her last full show with Creekside Theatre and though it is a sad goodbye, she can't wait to see what theatre at UNF brings. She would like to thank her family, friends, dogs Benji and Ella who are with her in spirit, and all her fourth graders from her elementary internship who are joining her for this journey. For the last time in a mainstage production, she proudly represents Troupe 7346. Thank you, and she hopes you enjoy the show. "If you believe in yourself and with a tiny pinch of magic, all your dreams can come true."- SpongeBob

Kirie Kocsis (Ensemble) is so happy to be a part of Creekside's production of The SpongeBob Musical. As a freshman, she is excited to participate more in future theatre productions with Creekside. In her previous role as Flute in Creekside's The Seussification of A Midsummer Night's Dream, she was excited to perform on stage and meet new people, she is super excited for what mores to come.

Cast & Crew Bios

Justice Lions (Patrick) Is this the Krusty Krab? No, this is PATRICK! Justice Lions has moved on from being lost in the woods in a love square to spending all day underneath his favorite rock. His magic days are over, being a Super Sea Star savior is the moment now. So, it's up to fate and practice to perfect this performance. Kind of missing being lost in the woods, but he's got this REALLY nice belly button scratcher and devoted sardines so it's not too bad. He's learned so much about music these past two months and is so grateful for the wonderful cast, director, and support from his friends and family. It's so sad to say after this that this guru's got to go. TEAM OF TRES TO THE TOP.

Zane Madera (Ensemble) is ecstatic to be on the stage in his first year with Creekside Theatre. He's been doing theatre for a few years and loves getting to sing, hangout with friends, and wear silly costumes. He previously played Godfather Drosselmeyer in The Nutcracker one-act and the Tinman in The Wizard of Oz Jr. at Fruit Cove Middle School. Zane is also starting his first year on the BeatPAC staff and is looking forward to many great years to come.

Kate Maguire (Ensemble) "Creekside theatre hosts an amazing atmosphere every show and SpongeBob has an extra whimsy that is just so exiting to be a part of."

Reiley Meadows (Security Guard) is not a new face on the Creekside stage. Known for some of her previous roles as the Cowardly Lion (Wizard of Oz) and Cheshire Cat (Alice in Wonderland), she is so honored to be a part of this exciting musical. She grew up always watching SpongeBob, but never in her wildest dreams thought she'd be in the musical for it. Reiley would like to thank her wonderful family, friends, and teachers who came out to support the show, and hopes they enjoy watching the show as much as she enjoyed working on it.

Marcus Mislivec (Ensemble) is euphoric to have the opportunity to participate in this production of The SpongeBob Musical. One may recognize them from their previous role as Theseus in Creekside's The Seussification of a Midsummer Night's Dream one-act. As freshman, they are looking forward to spreading smiles here at Creekside High School in future shows.

Danny Model (Ensemble) would like to wish her brother a happy 24th birthday and thank the Creekside Theatre community for a wonderful second year of productions! She has previously played The Guardian of The Gates and Peter Quince in the winter one acts and was a villager in Cinderella. She would like to thank all her fellow cast members for making this such a memorable production and would like to inquire about the positioning of her Drink her Diet Dr. Kelp!

Katie O'Donnell (Assistant Stage Manager) has had a joyous time with the cast and crew of this production. Throughout her three years, she has been frequently offstage as Assistant Stage Manager in Cinderella and onstage as Peter Quince in A Midsummer Night's Dream. She feels really immersed in Bikini Bottom with her cast and crew, and thinks this show is amazing! She would like to thank her friends and family for the infinite support given to her these past two months. No matter what, she believes we all are a team, the cast, crew, and parents alike. It truly has been the best day ever everyday with these people. So please enjoy the show, and watch team "us go!"

Jack Pasket (Larry the Lobster) is a senior at Creekside High School and has loved doing theater since starting in his junior year. You may recognize him from previous roles as James Potter Sr. (Harry Potter and the Cursed Child), Egeus (A Midsummer Night's Dream), or Oberon (The Seussification of a Midsummer Night's Dream). Although he is sad that this is his last play he'll be a part of, he is still excited to perform anyway and for the future that awaits him after graduation. He would like to thank his friends and family for attending and hopes they enjoy the show.
