Our Guest Clinician, Christina Shore...

Mrs. Christina Shore teaches Chorus, Classical Guitar and Musical Theater at R.J. Murray Middle School of the Arts in St. Augustine, Florida. Christina knew the very first day of middle school that she wanted to be a chorus teacher after experiencing her first day in beginning choir class. True story! She followed her dream by continuing chorus in high school and then attending Florida State University where she studied Music and Elementary Education. During her 20-year career, she has taught all subjects in 4th and 5th grade, elementary music, and middle school music. She could not be happier with her current job at R.J. Murray Middle School. At Murray, she gets to do everything she loves, every day, with an incredible group of talented students and supportive administrators that crave and love the arts.

At R.J. Murray Middle School, Mrs. Shore has two classes of Beginning Chorus and one class of Advanced Chorus. Her choirs perform at various venues throughout the year and have received both Superior and Excellent ratings at various Florida Vocal Association events. Christina also teaches classical guitar at R.J. Murray Middle School where students play a variety of songs from The Beatles to Bach!

Professionally, Christina plays classical guitar with The St. Augustine Classical Guitar Ensemble and uses this opportunity as a means to continually improve her playing skills and to learn from others so that she can grow as an educator.

In her spare time, Christina enjoys spending time with her two dogs Alice and Panda, and her husband, David Shore. Her hobbies include singing, playing her guitar, and being in nature with her dogs and husband.
