

Directions:

Find some crayons, markers, or colored pencils and color code the keyboard correctly. Use the typing hands as a reference so you know what color to use on each key. As you are coloring think about the finger that types on that key to help you remember when typing. There are two sheets you can use, one with the hands, one without.

Answer
Key

